Foreign investors were net sellers of PKR 498.18m (USD 1.8m); local investors were net buyers of PKR 498.18m. The internals read as a weak session beneath a flat index: the index edged up while all four refineries fell to the limit-down, with 136 advancers against 318 decliners, 294m traded in declining names against 90m in advancing ones and 7 of 33 sectors higher. Foreign selling eased from Friday's PKR 6,221.18m, the largest in the published series, to PKR 498.18m, the smallest since 23 October's PKR 416.57m and a ninth straight net sell, PKR 12.57bn since 21 October, with locals the net buyers as the index edged up.

Outlook

- The index edged up 154.81 points to 166,564.06, 2,145 points under the 10% line for a twenty-third straight session, 11.14% below the record and 2.61% under the 24 July low for a twenty-eighth, but 0.42% above the 5 October close and 2.58% above the 23 October closing low of 162,374.87.
- Under the surface the session was weak: 136 advancers against 318 decliners, 7 of 33 sectors higher and 294m of the 443m tape in declining names, with the Refinery sector down 9.99% after a fall on Friday and two sectors, Refinery and Transport, closing without an advancer.
- CNERGY fell 9.97% on 93m and has lost 12.78% in two sessions, PRL fell 10.00% to Rs 87.26, below 13 October's Rs 93.19, and PINLR fell 55.40% on its third day of trading, while PASL was unchanged at Rs 3.96 on 45m after Friday's limit-down and UCAPM rose 10.00% to Rs 23.10.

What to watch

- Whether the refineries stabilise after two straight sessions of falls - all four names closed at or within 0.03% of the 10% limit-down, and PRL is 6.36% under 13 October's Rs 93.19
- Whether the index holds above the 5 October close of 165,867.31 - Monday's 166,564.06 was 0.42% above it and 1.27% under the 168,710 line
- Whether foreign selling keeps easing - Monday's PKR 498.18m net sell was the ninth straight and the smallest since 23 October, after Friday's PKR 6,221.18m, PKR 12.57bn in all since 21 October
- USD/PKR, SBP rate signals and the global crude tape
